

NORDIC Provost Marshal Course (PMC)

Aim

The aim of the course is to impart such knowledge and attitudes to students from Nordic and other countries so that he/she is able to perform as Provost Marshal, working in a multinational Provost Marshal staff or perform as Legal Advisor in an international operation.

Contents

The course comprises the following subjects and orientations:

- Doctrine, SOP/SOI, MOU etc., Legal Aspects, ROE, Law of Armed Conflicts, cooperation with ICRC and other IO/NGO, Protection of civilians and Gender perspective in armed conflicts.
- Paradoxes and dilemmas in connections with National and International regulations and caveats in connections with e.g. POW operations, Death and Complain of harassment.
- Bde/BG Commanders expectations to his PM and the Military Police unit in connection with e.g. riots, detention of locals and daily duties etc.
- Provost Marshal in a joint environment
- International Criminal Court
- Briefings by:
 - Force Commanders
 - Provost Marshals or similar,
 - Experiences from a Provost Marshal in a mission area,
 - Legal experts,
 - Other relevant subjects.

Control

There are no examinations at the end of the course, but each student will be evaluated during lectures and syndicate work, proficiency in English. The evaluation will express the opinion as "passed" or "not passed".

MP 351

Certificate

The Nordic Provost Marshal Course Diploma will be issued.

Duration

5 days including mandatory social events.

Participation

Categories of personnel are Military Police Officers and Legal Advisors prior to serving as Provost Marshal, Legal Advisor or in a Provost Marshal staff in International operations or environments.

Conditions for admission are Military Police Training and service (except Legal Advisors) as well as a very good knowledge of English.

Number of students

Normally approx. 20 officers and Legal Advisors.

Practical information

Meeting place and time is Military Police Centre, Building 8, Noerre Uttrup Barracks, DK-9400 Noerresundby, Denmark.

First course day before 0900 hrs.

Dress code is daily best uniform in daily classes.

Best uniform for course dinner, civilian business casual for social events and PT gear for PT.

Accommodation in individual quarters at Aalborg barracks. All meals at barracks.

Miscellaneous

Payment for feeding, accommodation and social arrangements is in accordance with the NORDEFECO agreement € 130- pr. day.

No additional course fee is charged.

The course is conducted in English. Interpreters are not available.